

First Aid and Medical Officer Cover – University Novice Race Day
Sunday 8th December 2024

I confirm the below list of names are suitably first aid trained and will be present at University Novice Race Day. There will be at least one qualified first aider in each of the three safety launches and there will be first aid cover from land too.

If there were to be any serious medical incidents requiring further support, Warrington Hospital is the nearest Accident and Emergency department.

Warrington Hospital, Lovely Lane, Warrington, WA5, 1QG
